

Subscriber profile:

Gail Hall

Proud to be a coast to coast Canadian, Gail Hall is a musician, artist, author, field naturalist and teacher. She was identified and supported as gifted from an early age.

As a life long learner and explorer, Gail continues a multi disciplined and multi media practice. She has earned graduate and post graduate university degrees in Fine and Performing Arts and Education.

The Arts in Education programs as well as Dr. Shinichi Suzuki's mystical and ennobling philosophy, have formed the foundation of her teaching style.

Wassily Kandinsky's 'The Spiritual in Art' has greatly influenced her approach when making art and music.

Gail considers her main visual art collections to be a form of Documentary Art. They are designed to enrich our understanding and illuminate natural and human cultures.

Green grows her loves hue.

Contact Gail at Gail.music9@gmail.com